ORDER

On August 19, 2016 the parties in this matter notified the Court that they have reached a settlement and that they intend to file a dismissal with prejudice in the near future. (Doc. 4.) Accordingly, this case is ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSED pending the parties' filing the dismissal with prejudice.¹ The parties are DIRECTED to file within 45 days of the date of this Order either (1) the necessary documents to dismiss this case or (2) a joint status update notifying the Court why they are unable to file such documents.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 22nd day of August, 2016.

Amy Totenberg
United States District Judge

¹ Administrative closure of a case does not prejudice the rights of the parties to litigation in any manner. The parties may move to re-open an administratively closed case at any time.
